

1 Attachment phase:

- Claw engagement and disengagement are smoothest when moved parallel to the claw tips.
- Disengagement is difficult when torque is applied

The foot will stay in same orientation through the stroke if claws are well engaged and torque from ankle is small.

